| GENERAL MESSAGE - ICS 213               |               |  |                  |               |                |           |                    |
|---|---------------|--|------------------|---------------|----------------|-----------|--------------------|
| Incident Name: BP Whiting Crude Release |               |  |                  |               | Date Prepared: |           | 3-28-14            |
| IncidentLocation:                   |               | BP Whiting2815 Indianapolis BlvdWhiting, In. 46394 |                  |               |                | epared:   | 12.30              |
| To:                                     | On Duty L     | iaison   | ICS Position:    | BP Liaison    |                | Phone:    | 219-473-2020       |
| From:                                   | Mike Beslo    | OW   | ICS Position:    | EPA OSC       |                | Phone:    | 312-802-0711       |
| Subject:                                | Split samp    | le request   |                  |               |                |           |                    |
| requests                                | to take split | t samples during the refere                                | enced sampling o | event. Please | contact m      | nike besk | ow with questions. |
| Name:                                   |               |  |                  | Phone :       |                | Date:     |                    |
| Position :                              |               |  |                  |               |                | Time:     |                    |
| REPLY:                                  |               |  |                  | Phone:        |                | Date:     |                    |
| Position                                |               |  |                  |               |                | Time:     |                    |

2014-005969INT0000265

ICS 213 12/2003 - BART

Page _____ of ____